Cookie agreement

The Sverdlovsk region investment portal <https://invest-in-ural.ru/> (hereinafter referred to as the «Site») uses identification cookies and similar technologies that allow collecting the necessary information and statistics on visits to simplify the work with the Site, conduct marketing activities. This information such as: IP address, browser type and language, information about the Internet service provider, referral and exit pages, information about the operating system, date and time of visit. By using this Site, you agree to the use of cookies in accordance with this notice in relation to this type of files. If you do not agree that we use this type of files, then you must adjust your browser settings accordingly or not use the Site. We are not responsible for how third party providers and search engines use cookies.

Information for users

While viewing any page of the Site, the page itself is loaded on your computer, as well as a small text file called a cookie. Thanks to these files, site owners can determine if a particular computer has been on this site before. This happens during a second visit to the site by checking the user's computer for the presence of a cookie left over from a previous visit.

Cookies can be placed on your device by the Site administration (these cookies are called «own»). Some cookies may be placed on your device by other operators. These cookies are called «third party» cookies.

We and third parties may use cookies to find out when you visit the Site, how you interact with the content. Based on cookies, generalized and other information that is not related to the identification of individual users can be collected and used (for example, about the operating system, browser version and the URL from which the page was navigated, including from an email or advertisement). Thanks to this, we can provide you with more opportunities and analyze the route of visiting the Site, which serves as a tool for collecting generalized statistics on the use of the Site and helps us to optimize the Site.

Information about cookies

A cookie is a small amount of data, which often contains a unique anonymous identifier sent to your browser and stored on your computer's hard drive. Each site can send its own cookies to your computer if your browser settings allow it. At the same time (to keep your data confidential) your browser allows sites to access only your own cookies, but does not allow them to use the same cookies left by other sites.

Cookies store information about your Internet preferences. Users can configure their computers so that they automatically accept all cookies, or warn each time a site tries to write its cookie to the user's hard drive, or not accept any cookies at all. The latter option means that some personal services cannot be provided to users, and also that users who have chosen such settings will not be able to get full access to all sections.

Each browser is unique, so refer to the "Help" function of your browser to find out how to set up work with cookies. If you have configured your computer to completely prohibit the acceptance of cookies, you can still visit the Site anonymously until you wish to use one of the services of the Site.

Cookie retention period

Some cookies are valid from the moment you log in to the Site until the end of this particular session in the browser. When you close the browser, these files become unnecessary and are automatically deleted. Such cookies are called «session cookies». Some cookies are stored on the device and in between browser sessions — they are not deleted after the browser is closed. Such cookies are called «persistent». The retention period of persistent cookies on the device varies for different cookies. We use persistent cookies for various purposes: for example, to determine how often you visit our Site or how often you return to it, how the nature of the use of the Site changes over time.

Used cookies

Own cookies are necessary for the correct operation of the Site.

Google Analytics – cookies used to collect information about how visitors use our Site. We use this information to compile reports and improve our Website. Cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of Site visitors who came to us from other pages they visited. Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the Website, compile reports on Website activity for operators and provide other services related to the operation of the Website and Internet use. Google may also transfer this information to third parties if required by law, or if third parties process the information on behalf of Google. Google will not associate your IP address with other data stored by Google. You can opt out of the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser, however, keep in mind that if you do this, you will not be able to use all the functions of the Site. By using the Site, you consent to the processing of your data by Google services in the manner and for the purposes specified above. In addition, you can prevent the collection and use of data by Google (cookies and IP addresses) by downloading and installing browser extensions from the page <http://www.google.com/analytics/terms/gb.html> (Google Analytics Terms of Service and Privacy Policy).

Yandex.Metrica is a tracking and web analytics service from YANDEX LLC (16 Lev Tolstoy Str., Moscow, 119021, Russian Federation, YANDEX LLC).
